NCC, NSS, YRC & Anti-Drug Club Organize Fire Safety Awareness and Fire Extinguisher Demonstration at Sengunthar Engineering College

The National Cadet Corps (NCC), National Service Scheme (NSS), Youth Red Cross (YRC), and Anti-Drug Club (ADC) of Sengunthar Engineering College, Tiruchengode, Namakkal District, jointly organized a Fire Safety Awareness and Fire Extinguisher Demonstration Programme today to promote fire safety awareness and emergency preparedness among students and staff. The programme was conducted by officers of the Fire and Rescue Services Department, Tiruchengode, who explained the causes of fire accidents, fire prevention techniques, emergency evacuation procedures, and the proper use of different types of fire extinguishers. A live demonstration enabled participants to understand the practical methods of controlling fire and responding safely during emergencies. The programme was attended by the Principal, Dean, Heads of Departments, faculty members, NCC cadets, NSS volunteers, YRC volunteers, Anti-Drug Club members, and students from various departments, who actively participated and gained valuable practical knowledge on fire safety. The Fire and Rescue Services officers emphasized that awareness, preparedness, and timely action are the keys to preventing fire-related accidents and protecting lives and property. The college management expressed its sincere appreciation to the Fire and Rescue Services Department, Tiruchengode, for conducting the informative and practical awareness programme. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, reaffirming the institution's commitment to promoting safety awareness and disaster preparedness among the student community.

Sengunthar Engineering College NCC Cadets Render Volunteer Service at Sankagiri Mariamman Temple Consecration

The NCC Army Wing and Air Wing cadets of Sengunthar Engineering College (Autonomous), Tiruchengode, actively participated as volunteers during the consecration (Kumbabishekam) celebrations at the Mariamman Temple in Sankagiri. The cadets rendered dedicated service by assisting devotees, regulating queues, managing crowd movement, guiding pilgrims, and supporting the temple authorities to ensure the smooth conduct of the grand religious event.

The volunteer service reflected the NCC motto, "Unity and Discipline," as the cadets carried out their responsibilities with sincerity, discipline, and commitment to community service. Their timely assistance was appreciated by devotees, temple officials, and the event organizers, contributing significantly to the successful and peaceful conduct of the Function.
